Special attention is called to Section 1st of the amended revenue laws, herein filed, requiring the list of delinquent tax to be filed by the tax collectors on the first Monday of December, with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, which will compel the books to be promptly closed on that day, and all taxes thereafter collected, will incur large additional expenses.

Responsible parties may file with the collector a list of taxes they desire to pay, but all such lists must be promptly paid on or before November 30th.

An attempt having been made to counterfeited State warrants, I shall require each warrant to be endorsed by parties paying or remitting the same.

The poll taxes, to be paid before the first day of December, is only one dollar.

County taxes, including all the various tax, is 150 per cent over and in addition to the State tax.

All appointments herein made and published will be promptly met, and at all intervening time, the books will be open at Sardis, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., until the 30th day of November.

It is earnestly hoped that all taxpayers will promptly comply with all the requirements of this notice, as no leniency or extension of time can be allowed this year, in consequence of the following act hereby published for the benefit of taxpayers of this county.

U. CZANNE, Sheriff and Tax Collector.

An Act to Amend the Revenue Laws and for other purposes, Approved April 5th, 1872.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the tax collectors of the several counties in this State shall, on the first Monday of December in each year, return into the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of their respective counties, a list of the lands in their several counties, delinquent for any tax which such collectors are, or may be required to collect, and the person or persons to whom each tract or lot may be assessed, showing whether such person or persons are residents or non-residents of the county, and if non-residents, the place of their residence, according to the best of his knowledge, information or belief, and the total amount of the several taxes assessed against each tract, which list shall be verified by affidavit; and if any Tax Collector shall fail, through negligence or incompetency of himself or any deputy, to return such list at the time and manner here required, or shall make any false return in respect to such delinquent lands, he shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction, removed from office and imprisoned in the State Penitentiary for a term of not less than one year; and he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable thereon for the whole amount of such delinquent taxes, and for all damages which the State or county or any private person may sustain thereby.

Special attention is directed to Article 3 Section 267 of the Revised Code.

Section 267. All places for retailing intoxicating liquors in the several counties in this State, shall be closed, and no intoxicating liquors permitted to be sold, bartered, or given away, or drunk at any store, saloon, tavern, restaurant, steamboat not running, or wharfboat, at a landing, or place of business therein, from twelve o'clock of the preceding, until twelve o'clock of the succeeding night, of any general or special election; and all intoxicated rioters or disorderly persons, disturbing the peace by noise or violence, in the city, town, or place where the election shall be held, shall be arrested, placed in jail, or otherwise kept in custody (being permitted while in such custody to vote), until the polls shall be duly closed, or until they are entirely sober, quiet, orderly, peaceable and well behaved; and the registrars and inspectors of the election are hereby made conservators of the peace, and all such conservators of the peace, sheriffs, and their deputies, and all police officers appointed to guard, or be present at the polls and place of election, city marshals, their deputies, and all other police and peace officers, are required to faithfully execute these provisions and others to preserve the peace, freedom and purity of elections, under the penalties prescribed in the penal code for any neglect of such duties; and said registrars or inspectors shall, when necessary, call upon any or all citizens to aid them in these requirements; and all persons informed of any neglect or violation of these requirements, shall give notice to the district attorney and other proper officers thereof. A space of thirty feet in every direction from the polls shall be kept open and clear of all persons, except two challengers, of good conduct and good behavior, selected by each party to detect and challenge illegal voters; and the voters shall approach the polls from one direction, hue, or door, or passage, and depart in another, as nearly opposite as convenient. A copy of this section shall be published and posted, with the notice of any general or special election.

Special attention is also called to the following section of the Registration Laws.

Sec. 354. The Board of Registration, in all matters pertaining to their registration, shall be conservators of the peace, and empowered to arrest and cause to be imprisoned in the county jail, when necessary, all persons obstructing or preventing their registration, intimidating, threatening, or fraudulently contriving to prevent any person entitled thereto from registration, creating riots, disturbances or quarrels at the place of registration, or otherwise interfering therewith to prevent or delay the registers in the discharge of their duty; and all such offenses shall be punished as misdemeanors under the Criminal Code, and said registrars are empowered to call upon all sheriffs, constables, and their deputies, and all other peace officers, and, when necessary, other citizens, to aid and assist them in enforcing the laws and public peace, and suppress disturbances and prevent the offenses enumerated; and this section shall be published and posted with every notice to hold a registration.

WANTED BOOK AGENTS FOR THE GREAT INDUSTRIES OF THE UNITED STATES;

An Historical Summary of the Origin, Growth and Perfection of the Chief Industrial Arts of this Country.

1300 PAGES AND 500 ENGRAVINGS

Written by 20 Eminent Authors, including JOHN B. GOUGH, LEON CASE, EDWARD HOWLAND, JOS. S. LYMAN, REV. E. EDWIN HALL, HORACE GRUBB, PHILIP RIPLEY, ALBERT BRIDGEMAN, F. E. PERKINS, ETC., ETC.

This work is a complete history of all branches of industry, processes of manufacture, etc., in all ages. It is a complete encyclopedia of arts and manufactures, and is the most entertaining and valuable work of information on subjects of general interest ever offered to the public. It is adapted to the wants of the Merchant, Manufacturer, Mechanic, Farmer, Student and Inventor, and sells to both old and young of all classes. The book is sold by agents, who are making large sales in all parts of the country. It is offered at the low price of $2.50, and is the cheapest book ever sold by subscription. No family should be without a copy. We want Agents in every town of the United States, and no Agent can fail to do well with this book. Our terms are liberal. We give our agents the exclusive right of territory. One of our agents sold 125 copies in eight days, another sold 500 in two weeks. Our agent in Hartford sold 300 in one week. Specimens of the work sent to agents on receipt of stamp. For circulars and terms to agents address the publishers, J. B. BURB & HYDE, Hartford, Conn., or 1212 Chicago, Ill., or Cincinnati, Ohio.
